Program Overview	University of Toronto maintains “varsity club” status for Nordic skiing. The team is coached by volunteer student coaches. To participate, athletes must have a full course load (3 courses per semester). The focus is on competing in the OUA championships. Most on-snow training takes place on weekends at Hardwood Hills, north of Toronto. Dryland training dominates the rest of the year. The program is limited due to restricted funding from the school and the lack of a paid coach. http://www.varsityblues.ca/?path=nordic
